

Interested in local history?

Why not join our group Wallsend Local History Society.....Only £15.00 for an annual membership entitles you to attend meetings which include guest speakers on local topics and a Christmas party!. You are also able to access our local extensive local archive material! Visitors welcome £4.00 per session.

Our next meetings include the following topics:

9th March Greasepaint & Celluloid

Newcastle City Guide Tony Stephenson returns with entertaining stories of local theatres & cinemas

13th April Changing Face of Railways on Tyneside

Railway expert Iain Kitt will be providing a historic look on the impact of trains across our local area

11th May Wallsend Shops – New Shutter Talk

Steve Allerdice tour Wallsend High Street looking local photos on shop shutters, arranged by our society in conjunction with North Tyneside Council

All sessions start at 7pm - St Luke's Church Hall, off Station Road, Wallsend

Membership 10 sessions for only £15 per year

For further information regarding our society visit our Website
<https://www.wallsend-history.co.uk/>